ATTORNEY PATRICK H. NEALE NAMED LEADERSHIP COLLIER DISTINGUISHED ALUM

(NAPLES) April 12, 2014 - Collier County attorney Patrick H. Neale today was named the 2014 recipient of the Leadership Collier Foundation LCF Alumni Association™ Distinguished Alumni Award at the 25th Anniversary Celebration of Leadership Collier, held at Naples Airport and attended by over 400 people.

The award is given annually to a graduate from one of the Foundation's Leadership Programs who has:

- displayed significant contributions to American society which have directly and positively affected Collier County's entire community.
- notable accomplishments considered as having a sustained positive impact on helping Collier County being among the best places in America to work, live and visit.
- total accomplishments that reflect the goals, aspirations and support the Foundation's programs, policies, activities and efforts.
- the ability, status and role to continue to both impact the community's advancement and serve as an inspiration to all.

A 1992 graduate of Leadership Collier and a member of the inaugural delegation of the Leadership Institute,™ Neale's extensive service and commitment to Collier County community and non-profit organizations for over 25 years as well as his pro bono legal support activities qualify him for this award.
